

Index

- actual values, state incarceration rates and, 142–144
- adult population, percentage of felons and ex-felons in, 160
- African Americans
 drug policy impact on, 111–113
 incarceration rates for, 8–10, 139–144, 145n.28 opinions on death penalty among, 25–27
 public opinion on punitiveness and, 33–39
 state correction expenditures and population rate for, 139–144, 152–155
- Alexander, Michelle, 9, 74–75
- American exceptionalism, public opinion and, 39–44
- American National Election Study (ANES), 33–39
 Goldwater presidential campaign and, 54–58, 69–70
 questions used in, 70–73
- Andrade, Leandro, 1, 14–15
- Anti-Drug Abuse Act (1986), 111–113
- Arpaio, Joe, 144–145
- Augmented Dickey Fuller test, 113n.22, 117–120, 140n.19, 145
- Bafumi, Joseph, 133–134
- ballot initiatives, California punitiveness analysis and, 138–144, 147–148
- Baumgartner, Frank, 15, 20n.5, 93, 96, 159, 162
- Beckett, Katherine, 49n.1, 50–51, 60–64, 97, 144n.23
- Bell, Jeffrey, 63
- Bloomington Pantagraph* newspaper, crime reporting in, 80–81
- Booker, Corey, 120, 162
- bootstrap cluster standard errors (BCSE), state incarceration rates, 140, 145
- border enforcement, public opinion concerning, 125–126
- Boston Globe*, 82–85
- Boydston, Amber E., 15, 96, 159, 162
- Boyea, Brent, 14–15, 162
- Brace, Paul R., 14–15, 162
- Brown, Jerry (Governor), 148–149
- Brown, Pat (Governor), 148–149
- Bureau of Labor Statistics, 82
- Bush, George W., 117–120
- Cadora, Eric, 100–101
- California, changes in incarceration rates in, 135–140, 148–149
- California Field Poll, 135
- Camp, Scott D., 10
- campaign tactics, public opinion on crime and, 52–58
- Canada
 death penalty abolished in, 42–44 incarceration and sentencing laws in, 304 sentencing duration in, 105n.8
- capital punishment
 Canadian abolition of, 40–44
 prohibition in U.S. of, 39
- Casillas, Christopher J., 29–30
- Chambliss, William J., 112–113

- change analysis
 California incarceration rates, 135–140, 148–149
 control variables in, 109–113 decline in support for punitiveness and, 38–39 governmental decision-making and public opinion, 28–31 of incarceration rates, 14–15, 20
 latent opinion and, 30–31
 measurement of, 23–27
 news coverage of crime and, 87–89
 Chicago Council on Global Affairs, 65–67
Chicago Tribune, 82–85
 children, costs of parental incarceration for, 7–10 Chiricos, Ted, 21
 citizen preferences, incarceration rates and, 12–15
 civil rights movement, race and crime and, 51
 Clark, Ramsey, 60
 Clear, Todd R., 163–164
 cocaine possession, life without parole sentencing for, 2 college education in prison proposals, 163 Congressional hearings, criminal issues in, 93–96 content analysis, of news media, 97–98 control variables, changes in incarceration rate and, 109–113
 Cook, Beverley B., 15 corrections expenditures by states, 129–130, 144–148
 robustness checks on analysis of, 152–155
 costs of incarceration, 5–10, 101–103
 state budgetary appropriations and, 129–130
 crack cocaine, penalties for possession of, 111–113
 crime dramas
 public opinion and, 92–96
 television ratings for, 89–91, 96–98 crime rate
 economic conditions and, 92–96
 Goldwater's campaign focus on, 52–58 gubernatorial focus on, 68–69 incarceration rate and, 9–10, 103–108, 120–121, 144n.23 increase in, news coverage of, 82–85
 Johnson's focus on, 59–60
 mass vs. elite opinion on, 65–67 measurement of news coverage on crime and, 81–85
 media depictions of, 16–17, 19–20 news coverage and, 91–96
 in Nixon's presidential campaign, 60–64
 over time measurements of, 75–81 past measurements of public opinion on, 20–22 political and public concern over, 50–51
 public attitudes concerning, 16–17, 158
 punitiveness and, 74–99, 97–98, 122–126, 145–148
 similarity in crime trajectories, 80–81
 television crime dramas and, 90–91
 types of crime measured, 76–81
 U.S. incarceration rates and, 10–12
 criminal justice system future trends in, 162–164
 past measurements of attitudes on, 20–22
 public opinion and, 14–15, 28–31, 30–31, 40–44, 156–157, 161–162
 social costs of employees in, 161
 state politics and, 127–155
 criminal rights, public punitiveness measurement and, 32–39
 Cronbach's alpha, crime measurement and, 76n.5
 Cuomo, Mario, 163
 death penalty
 American exceptionalism concerning, 40–44
 cross-national data on, 40–42 exclusion of juveniles from, 163
 in Japan and South Korea, 3n.4
 public attitudes concerning, 15, 25–27, 96–98
 punitiveness measurement and, 32–39
 death penalty laws, international comparisons of, 2–4
 De Boef, Suzanna, 15, 96, 159, 162
The Decline of the Death Penalty (Baumgartner, De Boef and Boydston), 159 decriminalization of drug offenses, 120 Democratic Party
 crime policies and, 159 error correction model of incarceration rates and, 117–120
 Denmark, incarceration rates in, 2–4
 Donohue, John J., 75–76
 Druckman, James N., 50–51

Index

187

- drug mortality rate
 data coding, 121–122
 over-time measurement of, 110–113
- drug offenses
 arrest rates and drug fatalities, 110–113 changes in sentencing for, 162–164 decriminalization of certain offenses, 120
 incarceration rates and, 110–113
 public opinion and, 161
 sentencing laws for, 128–130
- drug use
 arrests and penalties and increase in, 112–113
 incarceration rate and, 116–117
 marijuana legalization and, 162–164
- Durham, Alexis M. III, 23
- earnings, impact of incarceration on, 6–10
- economic conditions
 crime rate and, 92–96
 incarceration rates and, 112–113, 139–144
 news coverage of, 82–85
- Eddy, Thomas, 128–129
- electoral politics
 criminal justice system and, 14–15
 punitiveness and, 16
- elite leadership
 defined, 49–50
 Goldwater and, 52–58
 Johnson and, 59–60
 mass opinion and, 65–67
 measurements of influence of, 93–96
 public concern for crime and, 50–51
 punitiveness and, 95–96, 117–120
- Ellsworth, Robert, 62
- employment, incarceration as obstacle to, 6–10
- England, incarceration and sentencing laws in, 304
- Enns, Peter K., 29–30
- Environics Focus Canada Surveys, 42–44
- episodic framing, news media crime coverage and, 86–89
- Epstein, Leon D., 55n.8
- Erikson, Robert B., 28, 50–51, 152–155
- error correction model (ECM) incarceration rates, 113–120, 145n.26 predicted and actual values in, 118n.28
 robustness check on, 145n.28, 152–155
- European countries, abolition of death penalty in, 41–44
- Ewing, Gary, 2, 14–15
- Fair Sentencing Act 2010, 111n.17
- families, social costs of incarceration for, 7–10
- federalism, public opinion and policy and, 42n.34
- Fenno, Richard, 31
- Finland, incarceration rates in, 2–4
- Flamm, Michael, 52, 58
- Frost, Natasha A., 163–164
- Furman v. Georgia*, 39
- Gaes, Gerald G., 10
- Garland, David, 130, 162
- Gelman, Andrew, 133–134
- General Social Survey (GSS), 33–39
- George, Stephanie, 2, 160
- Getz, Marc, 21
- Goldwater, Barry, 16, 49n.1, 157–158
 positive public opinion concerning, 69–70 presidential campaign of, 52–58
- Gottschalk, Marie, 13, 120–121, 144n.23, 160, 163–164
- Governing Through Crime* (Simon), 120n.30
- government expenditures, costs of incarceration and, 5–6
- government policy
 public opinion and, 28–31
 punitiveness and, 95–96
- Graber, Doris Appel, 86
- Granger Causality tests
 Congressional focus on crime and, 94–96
 news coverage of crime and increase in punitiveness, 91–96
 robustness of, 98–99
- Great Recession, crime rates and, 112–113, 120
- Gross Domestic Product (GDP)
 state correction expenditures and, 147n.29
 state economic conditions, 140–144
- gubernatorial politics, mass vs. elite opinion and, 68–69
- guilty pleas, admittance rates and increase in, 106–108
- Gwirtzman, Milton S., 64
- Haldeman, H. R., 62
- Hall, Frank A., 127
- Hanson, Gordon, 126
- Harden, Jeffrey J., 140–144
- Hawkins, Gordon, 13, 144n.23
- health costs of incarceration, 6–10

- Hispanics incarceration rates for, 8–10
 public opinion on punitiveness and, 33–39
Historical Statistics on Prisoners in State and Federal Institutions, Yearend 1925-1986, 132n.9
- Hofstadter, Richard, 52
- Hogan, Michael J., 21
- Holder, Eric H. Jr., 100
- Humphrey, Hubert, 63–64, 68
- illegal drug use, crime rate and, 110–113
- immigration rates, robustness checks on public opinion and, 122–126
- incarceration rates in California, 135–140, 148–149
 changes in, 103–108
 cost of mass incarcerations, 5–10 crime rate and, 9–10, 103–108, 120–121, 144n.23 error correction model for, 113–120
 in Europe, crime prevention and, 40–44 federal vs. state incarceration rates, 127n.1 human toll of, 160–161
 international comparisons of, 2–4
 length of sentences and, 128–130 limited benefits of, 9–10
 new admittances and, 103–108 parole violations and return incarcerations in, 105–108
 public opinion and, 12–15, 17, 50–51, 100–126
 punitiveness and changes in, 102–103, 108–120
 robustness checks on analysis of, 122–126, 148–152
 sentencing laws and, 118n.27, 127–130 social control hypothesis and, 112–113, 139–144
 state budgetary appropriations and, 129–130
 state rates, 17–18, 131–133
 time series analysis of, 113–120
- income inequality, incarceration rates and, 112n.20
- indeterminate sentences, 128n.2
- inequality, of impact of incarceration, 8–10
- inflation, news coverage of, 82–85
- “innocence” frame, media coverage of death penalty and, 96–98
- innocent people, probability of incarceration for, 8–10
- Integrated Public Use Microdata Series (IPUMS), 134n.12
- Iran, incarceration rate in, 3n.4
- Iraq, incarceration rate in, 3n.4
- Iyengar, Shanto, 86
- Jacobs, Lawrence R., 50–51
- Japan, incarceration rate and death penalty in, 3n.4
- Jobs, Steve, 19
- Jodrey, H. Lawrence, 129–130
- Johnson, Lyndon B., 16
 crime policies of, 59–60, 68, 158–159
 public’s confidence in, 56–58, 70–73
- Johnson, Rucker, 9
- judicial politics
 incarceration rates and, 118n.25
 state incarceration rates and, 129–130
- Justice Mapping Center, 100n.3
- juvenile sentencing, punitiveness concerning, 163
- Kansas Department of Corrections, 106–108
- Kennedy, Robert, 64, 68
- Key, V. O., 29, 40
- King, Anna, 92–96
- Klarner, Carl, 140
- Kurgan, Laura, 100–101
- lagged value measurements
 California punitiveness analysis and, 136–144
 punitiveness and Republican strength and, 113n.22, 117–120
 state incarceration rates, 140–144
- latent opinion
 cross-national data and, 40–42
 political actors and, 29
- Lax, Jeffrey R., 133–134
- length of sentences in Canada, 105n.8
 incarceration rates and, 128–130
- Levitt, Steven D., 9
- life without parole sentences, cocaine possession and, 2
- local crime measurement, policy implications of, 80n.7
- local politics, public opinion on crime and, 51
- Long Run Multiplier (LRM), error correction model of incarceration rates and, 114–120
- Longstaff, Ronald E., 160

Index

189

- Los Angeles Times*, 82–85
 Loury, Glenn C., 144n.23
 LSD possession, life without parole sentencing for, 2
- Making Crime Pay* (Beckett), 49n.1
 marijuana legalization, 162–164
The Marshall Project, 164
 Maruna, Shadd, 21, 92–96
 Massoglia, Michael, 7
 Mauer, Marc, 59–60, 68
 McConnell, Edward B., 130
 McKuen, Michael B., 28, 50–51, 152–155 metropolitan area crime rates, over time measurement of, 79–80 Middendorf, J. William, 52–53
 Mitchell, John, 62
 Monroe, James, 1
 mortality rate, drug-related deaths and, 110–113 multilevel regression and poststratification (MRP), state measures of punitiveness and, 134–135 multiple survey questions, public punitiveness measurement and, 32–39 “myth of punitiveness,” 13–15
- National Center for State Courts, 130 National Crime Victimization Survey, 75n.2
 national-level political discourse, public opinion on crime and, 51
 National Prisoner Statistics data series, 132n.9
 National Registry of Exonerations at the University of Michigan Law School, 8–10
 new admittances, 160
 incarceration rate and, 103–108
 news media
 bias toward violent crime coverage in, 86–89, 96–98 changes in crime coverage by, 164 crime coverage in, 16–17, 19–20, 74–75, 159 crime rate and crime coverage by, 92–96 development of law and order society and, 91–96 economic conditions reporting in, 82–85
 of increased crime rate, 82–85 “innocence” frame in death penalty coverage, 96–98
 measurement of crime coverage in, 81–85
 over-reporting of violent crime by, 76, 80–81 public attitudes toward crime and, 44 punitiveness of public and crime reporting, 85–89 similarity in crime trajectories and reporting by, 80–81 newspapers, measurement of crime coverage in, 81–85
New York Times, 82–85
 Nielsen Television Index National Ranking Report for the Top 20 Prime Programs, 90–91
 Nixon, Richard, 16, 157, 158
 drug arrests and mortality rates under, 110–113
 presidential campaign of, 60–64
 Noble, Bernard, 160
 nonpunitive attitudes, criminal justice system and, 21–22
 North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, 106–108
 Norway, incarceration rates in, 2–4
- O’Brien, Lawrence, 64
 Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), incarceration rate rankings by, 3n.4
 Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC), 65
 over-time measurement California public punitiveness, 135–144
 change analysis and, 157–158
 of crime rates, 75–81, 109–113
 death penalty abolition in Canada and, 42–44
 of opinion change, 23–27
 of punitiveness, 15–16, 22–23, 31–39
 state incarceration rates, 131–133
 state measures of punitiveness and, 134–135
 Stimson’s algorithm for, 35–39
- Park, David K., 133–134
 parole violations, return incarcerations for, 105–108 partisan composition of state legislatures corrections expenditure patterns and, 145–148
 state incarceration rates and, 140–144
 two-party system and, 159
 Paul, Rand, 120, 162
 penal reform, public opinion and, 162

- People's Republic of China, incarceration rate in, 3n.4
- Pfeffer, Jeffrey, 144
- Phillips, Justin H., 133–134
- Phillips, Kevin, 61n.20
- police, public attitudes about, 129–130
- Policy Agendas Project, 93n.21
- policy preferences
 incarceration rates and, 13–15
 state criminal justice systems and, 129–130
- political costs of incarceration, 7–10, 101–103
 crime rate and, 12–15
 death penalty and, 25–27
 public opinion and, 16, 42–44
- politicians. See also specific candidates, e.g., Goldwater
 crime rate and, 50–51
 defined, 49–50
- politics
 public opinion and, 28–31, 49–50, 65–67
 punitiveness and, 95–96, 117–120, 148
 robustness checks on analysis of, 122–126
 state incarceration rates and, 140–144
 state sentencing laws and correction expenditures and, 129–130, 145–148
- The Politics of Injustice* (Beckett and Sasson), 50–51
- poverty, crime rate and, 100–103
- predicted values
 error correction model of incarceration and, 118–120
 state incarceration rates and, 142–144, 147n.30
- predictor variables, error correction model of incarceration rates and, 114–120,
 145n.27
- presidential leadership
 criminal policies and, 93–96
 public opinion and policy and, 42n.35
- principal components analysis, crime measurement and, 76n.4
- prison system, future of, 162–164
- The Prison and the Gallows* (Gottschalk), 13
- property crime
 error correction model of incarceration rates
 and, 116–120
 over time measurement of, 76–81, 110–113, 158
 in United States, 97–98
- prosecutorial politics
 incarceration rates and, 118n.25
 state incarceration rates and, 129–130
- public opinion
 American exceptionalism and, 39–44
 California punitiveness analysis and, 136–144
 changes in, 23–27, 157–158
 on crime rate, 50–51
 criminal justice system and, 156–157
 decline in support for punitiveness, 38–39, 119–120
 error correction model of incarceration rates
 and, 114–120
 during Goldwater presidential campaign, 52–58
 incarceration rates and, 12–15, 17, 19–20
 income inequality and, 112n.20
 Johnson's crime policies and, 59–60
 mass and elite opinion, 1970s and 1980s, 65–67
 measurement of opinion change, 23–27, 31–39
 news coverage of crime and crime dramas
 and, 92–96
 news coverage of crime rates and, 74–75
 in Nixon's presidential campaign, 60–64
 past measurements of criminal justice attitudes, 20–22
 policy preferences and, 49–50
 political elites and, 28–31, 49–51
 punitiveness measurements of, 15–16, 19–20, 31–39
 robustness checks on analysis of, 122–126
 state incarceration rates and, 17–18, 128–130
 state measurements of punitiveness and, 133–135
 television crime dramas and, 89–96
 as unifying framework, 161–162
- punitiveness
 American exceptionalism concerning, 39–44
 changes in incarceration rate and, 108–120
 crime rate and, 74–99, 97–98, 122–126, 145–148
 error correction model of incarceration rates
 and, 114–120
 future trends in, 162–164
 incarceration rate and, 102–103
 Johnson's crime policies and, 59–60 measurement of opinion on, 32–39
 news coverage of crime and, 85–89, 91–96
 over-time measurement in California of, 135–144

Index

191

- political outcomes and, 95–96, 117–120, 148, 159
 - public attitudes concerning, 16–17, 19–22, 74–99
 - robustness checks on analysis of, 122–126
 - in sentencing laws, 127–130
 - state expenditures on corrections and, 145
 - state incarceration rates and, 140–144
 - state measurements of, 133–135
 - state politics and, 127–155
 - television crime dramas and, 89–91
 - trends in public opinion about, 38–39
- race and racism
- attitudes toward criminal justice system and, 112–113, 125–126
 - bias in news coverage of crime and, 86–89, 96–98
 - drug policies and, 111–113
 - impact of incarceration and, 8–10
 - opinions on death penalty and, 25–27
 - public opinion on crime and, 51, 159
 - public opinion on punitiveness and, 33–39
 - robustness checks on public opinion and, 122–126
 - “Southern Strategy” in Nixon campaign and, 60–61
- Ramirez, Mark D., 51, 93–96
- Ranney, Austin, 55n.8
- Raphael, Steven, 9
- Reagan, Ronald, 50–51, 158
- drug arrests and mortality rates under, 111–113
- recidivism, incarceration rates and, 9–10
- Redburn, Steve, 161
- re-entries to prison, incarceration rates and, 105–108
- Reiner, Robert, 80
- Republican Party
- crime policies and, 159
 - error correction model of incarceration rates and, 117–120
 - state correction expenditures and strength of, 146–148
 - state incarceration rates and political strength of, 142–144
- Right on Crime, 157n.2
- Riley, Robert, 2, 160
- Rockefeller, Nelson, 128
- Rockefeller Drug Laws, 128
- Roper Center Public Opinion Archives, 33–39
- Salancik, Gerald R., 144
- Saudi Arabia, incarceration rate in, 3n.4
- Schwarzenegger, Arnold, 5–6
- second strikers, incarceration of, 2
- Seidman, Robert B., 112–113
- sentencing laws
- drug offenses, 120, 128–130, 162–164
 - incarceration rates and, 118n.27, 127–130
 - international comparisons of, 2–4
 - judicial concerns about, 2–3
 - new admittances to incarceration and, 105n.8
 - public opinion and, 161
- Shannon, Sarah, 144n.23
- shoplifting, maximum sentencing for, 1–2
- short-term effects, predictor variables for, 145n.28, 152–155
- Simon, Jonathan, 120n.30
- social control hypothesis
- drug use and, 116–117
 - inequality and, 112–113, 139–144
- social costs of incarceration, 6–10, 101–103, 160–161
- Soroka, Stuart, 42–44, 80–81, 86n.13
- “Southern Strategy,” 60–61
- South Korea, incarceration rate and death penalty in, 3n.4
- state budgets
- costs of incarceration and, 5–10
 - expenditures on corrections, 129–130, 144–148
- state crime rates, over time measurement of, 76–81
- state incarceration rates, 17–18, 131–133
- changes in, 135–144
 - economic conditions and, 140–144
 - partisan composition of state government and, 140–144
 - state expenditures on corrections and, 144–148
- state politics
- error correction model of incarceration rates and, 117–120
 - mass vs. elite opinion and, 68–69
 - public opinion on crime and, 51
 - punitiveness and, 127–155
- state population rates, measurements of
- punitiveness and, 134–135
- stationary time series analysis, state incarceration rates, 140–144
- Stimson, James A., 28, 32–39, 50–51, 84–85, 135, 152–155

- Stokes, Donald, 52n.4
 Supreme Court decisions
 death penalty and, 163
 public opinion and, 162
 Sweden, incarceration rates in, 2–4
- technical violations, re-entries to prison for, 105–108
- television
 crime dramas on, 89–91, 96–98
 measurement of crime coverage in, 81–85
- three strikes laws
 California revision of, 2n.3, 162–164
 sentences based on, 1–2
- time series analysis, incarceration rates, 113–120
- time series opinion indices, Stimson's algorithm for, 35–39
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 156
- To Kill a Mockingbird* (Lee), 156
- Tonry, Michael, 28
- Travis, Jeremy, 161
- Uggen, Christopher, 144n.23
- unemployment rate
 news coverage of, 82–85
 robustness checks on public opinion and, 122–126
- Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program (FBI), 11–12, 75–81
- United States
 future of prison system in, 162–164 politics and incarceration in, 42–44 sentencing and incarceration rates in, 2–4, 10–15 violent and property crime rates in, 97–98
- US Immigration and Naturalization Service, 126
- Vector Autoregressive (VAR) model crime rate, news coverage, television crime dramas and punitiveness, 92n.20
 robustness of, 98–99
- violent crime
 bias in news coverage of, 86–89, 96–98
 error correction model of incarceration rates and, 116–120
 over-time measurement of, 76–81, 109–113, 158
 in United States, 97–98
 voting rights, incarceration and loss of, 7–10
- Wakefield, Sara, 160
- Wales, incarceration and sentencing laws in, 304
- Wall Street Journal*, 82–85
- war on drugs
 failure of, 121
 mortality and arrest rates and, 111–113
- war on poverty, crime rate and, 59–60
- Washington Post*, 82–85
- Wcalc algorithm (Stimson), 35–39, 84–85, 135
- Weaver, Vesla, 49n.1, 51–52, 57–58, 60, 76n.3
- Western, Bruce, 9, 144n.23, 161
- Wildeman, Christopher, 160
- Wilson, James Q., 49, 76n.3
- Wlezien, Christopher, 42–44
- Wohlfarth, Patrick C., 29–30
- Wolfers, Justin, 75–76
- Zimring, Franklin E., 13, 19–20, 144n.23